CROCNARAW…..a little different

"Set back from the road in lovely wooded gardens with fine views over the surrounding quiet beautiful countryside of mountains trees and sea-inlets. A fresh Georgian house with charming colourful décor and gracious relaxing atmosphere. Superb catering in a delightful restaurant"

ITAS

RECOMMENDED BY

Avantages Guide du Routard
Good Hotel GUIDE (1966)
Cadogan Guide
Eyewitness Travel Guide
Alistair Sawday's Special Places to Stay (Ireland)
Politikken (Copenhagen newspaper)
The "Guide Bleu"
Friendly Homes of Ireland
The Lady

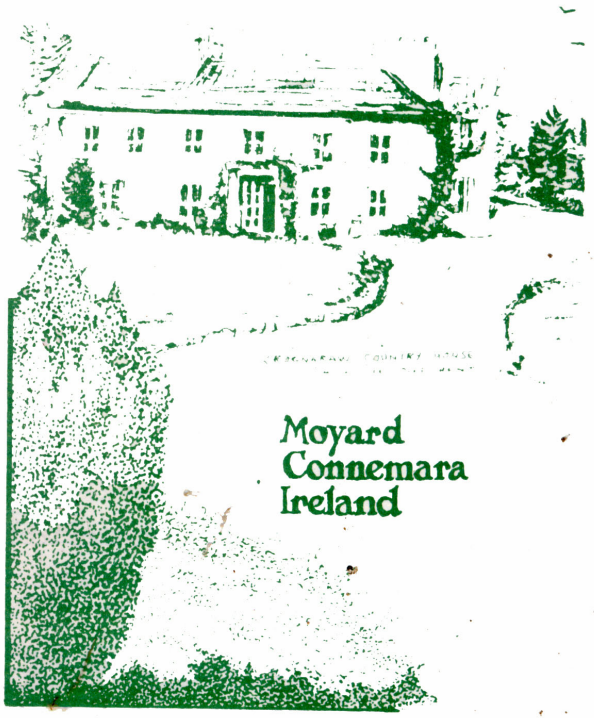
…and many others

Distances

Galway…….. 56 miles
Dublin…….. 183 miles
Shannon Airport….100 miles
Knock Airport ….. 75 miles

Crocnaraw
COUNTRY HOUSE

ESTABLISHED 1962



Tel/Fax 353 95 41068
rooms@crocnaraw.co.uk
www.crocnaraw.co.uk

Crocnaraw is an old Irish Georgian Country House presently being run as an Inn close to Ballinakill Bay, six miles from Clifden and on the scenic Westport-Clifden road. Set in 20 acres of fields, gardens and trees ,Crocnaraw has won the Irish Guesthouse Gardens Competition for 4 years.
This privately-run establishment offers Irish friendliness and a cordial service without a trace of casualness. The interior of the house is cheerfully and tastefully decorated ,all the bedrooms being individually and comfortably furnished .

Crocnaraw is fully licensed and the kitchen has the use of fresh vegetables, salads and fruits from the garden and orchard as well as free range eggs and local produce from the Connemara Region. Crocnaraw is well located for pursuits such as poney trekking, sea-angling, salmon and trout fishing in lake or stream, links golf or walking the hills, beaches and rocky shorelines or boglands that are to be found in Connemara and the nearby Islands